PHOTOGRAPHERS CLOSE ANNUAL CONVENTION

R. W. Holzner, of Charlottesville, is Elected President—Demonstration Given of New Methods.

The Photographers' Association of Virginia and the Carolinas concluded its sessions at the Richmond Hotel yesterday afternoon, after voting down two proposals from other associations for a merger. Had the association accepted either of the proposals submitted it would have lost its name and identity.

The first proposal was from the Pennsylvania Society of Photographers. This association includes the amalgamated photographers of New Jersey, Maryland, the District of Columbia and Delaware. The second proposal came from the Dixie Association of Photographers, which embraces the States of Georgia, Florida, Alabama, Mississippi and Texas. Both of these organizations, like the Virginia and Carolinas Association, are affiliated with the National Association of Photographers of America.

The Virginia and Carolina photographers were unwilling to merge with either, and by a practically unanimous vote it was decided to continue as an independent organization.

The delegates were addressed yesterday by John I. Hoffman, secretary of the National Association, who spoke on "Co-Operation in Business." At the close of his address the photographers witnessed demonstrations of the latest photographic equipment. A part of the afternoon was given to dealers in photographic supplies, whose equipment and materials were on exhibition in the assembly hall.

Most of the photographers departed for their homes after the convention and demonstrations, including the new president of the organization, R. W. Holzner, of Charlottesville. R. W. Holzner, of Charlottesville, is the retiring president and Secretary R. E. Gillingham, of Newport News.

The time and place for the next annual convention will be announced later in this year by the executive board, which is made up of the principal officers.

Rev. Father O'Hara Celebrates Anniversary. Rev. Father O'Hara, pastor of the Keyser Mission in West Virginia, who is well known in this city, has just celebrated his thirtieth anniversary of the appointment, which charge embraces the Counties of Mineral, Hardy, Grant and Hampshire. During his pastorate he has witnessed the growth and improvement of Keyser and the development of the territory along the Western Maryland Railroad as far as Thomas. After these years of hard work he will be partially relieved by Rev. H. J. Brantley, who has been appointed to take charge of the missions of Hampshire and Hardy Counties.

CHARTER CHANGERS DISCUSS POLLOCK PLAN

May Vote To-Night on Proposition to Have Administrative Board Elected by Council on Mayor's Nomination.

Interest in the meeting of the Charter-Change Committee to-night centers in the action that will be taken with respect to the principal features of the Pollock plan of governmental reform. Those who have followed the committee's proceedings agree that tonight's meeting is the crucial one of the whole series, and that it will probably determine roughly the extent to which the committee will go in recommending amendments to the present charter.

Since the last meeting there has been a noticeable increase in interest in the reform plan suggested by Councilman Pollock. Prominent members of the City Association—the organization which has been the beginning taken a hostile attitude to reform plans emanating from the office of the Councilman from Madison Ward—have come forth as champions of the main principle of the Pollock plan, as approving their own or administrative centralization.

The committee will in all probability vote before adjournment on the central question—whether the Administrative Board shall be elected by the people or by the Council, and to what extent the Mayor shall be given administrative authority, either by appointment or by election.

IS PORTER AN "OFFICER"?

Bank Robbery Raises Question as to Legal Status of Employee.

Whether or not the negro, James Henderson, indicted by a Federal grand jury for embezzlement of funds from the Merchants National Bank, can, by virtue of his position as porter for the institution, be classed as an agent, clerk or official of the bank, has become a mooted question. Counsel for the defense says that he can not, and has demurred to the indictment, claiming that he should be tried in the State courts.

Judge Edmund Waddill, Jr., of the United States District Court, has the question under consideration, and is expected to render a decision within a few days. In the event that the Attorney General's demurrer is sustained, the case will be transferred to the Department of Justice as to appeal.

Will Appear in Court. When the eighteenth-century Catherine Jimenez, a young woman charged with stealing $500 from L. D. Johnson, was called in the Police Court yesterday afternoon, she did not put in an appearance. An attachment was issued for her.

VINEGAR COMPANY IS UNDER INDICTMENT

Charged With Shipping Intoxicants Into North Carolina Without Label.

FEDERAL GRAND JURY BUSY
Indictments Against Dr. Boyce D. Brooker Under Harrison Antinarcotic Law Are Corrected—Other True Bills Are Returned.

The E. S. Shelby Vinegar Company, Inc., of this city, was yesterday indicted by the grand jury of the United States District Court for shipping two kegs containing intoxicating liquors to L. C. Hazard, at Windsor, N. C., without labeling them so as to show plainly the name of the consignee, and the nature and quantity of the contents. A second count charged the company with consigning three kegs with the same contents to the Colon Grocery Co., Colon, N. C. The kegs are alleged to have left Richmond on July 23.

James and Frank Hagan, the two boys who plead guilty Wednesday to the charge of breaking into the post-office at New Bohemia, Prince George County, were, respectively, sentenced by Judge Waddill to one and four years imprisonment and fined $500 each. The younger boy, James, received a lighter sentence than his brother on account of extreme youth. Judge Waddill reminded them in pronouncing sentence, that no circumstance of sympathy being about valid reasons for committing the crime of which they stood convicted, and he hoped their experience would teach them a valuable lesson. Their plea was that broken fortunes and the necessity of procuring means with which to care for their family drove them to an attempt at larceny.

CHARGED WITH BOARDING VESSEL, REPORT ITS INSPECTION

Other Indictments returned yesterday by the grand jury are as follows: Harry Nerenbloom, for boarding the British steamer Wilberforce, near Newport News, on August 29, before the vessel had been properly inspected by customs and quarantine officers.

W. M. Swanner and Freeman Spencer, for shipping kegs containing intoxicating liquors from Norfolk to Washington, D. C., without labeling them so as to show the nature and quantity of their contents. A second count charges them with agreeing together to commit the alleged offense.

Tonkie Jamato, for making a false statement and concealing assets in bankruptcy proceedings at Norfolk, August 2. The indictment embodies two counts.

James D. Hanes, for permitting aliens to land at Lambert's Point from the steamer Dionisias Strathatos. Hanes was an officer on the vessel.

NORFOLK FIRM CHARGED WITH FAILURE TO EFFACE STAMPS

H. G. Williams & Co., Inc., of Norfolk, for failure to efface stamps on kegs containing distilled spirits, after the liquor had been drawn off. The alleged offense occurred on May 19.

David Avert, for operating an illicit distillery in Greensville County. There are two counts embodied in the indictment.

James E. Faison, for the same offense, with two counts.

Dr. Boyce D. Brooker, two indictments—corrections of the one returned last Monday for violation of the Harrison antinarcotic law.

Examination of witnesses in the case of Ira C. Smith, former storekeeper-gauger in the internal revenue service, stationed with the Richmond Distilling Company, who is charged with permitting the government to be defrauded of revenue, will be resumed this morning. The court went into trial of the case yesterday afternoon. W. D. Cardwell and Harry M. Smith, Jr., represent the defendant.

ELKS ISSUE BONDS

Will Remodel Front of Club House at Cost of $8,000—Unique Financial Scheme.

Richmond Lodge, No. 43, E. P. O. Elks, has adopted the "baby bond" plan for raising funds for the rebuilding of the Elks' Home Club.

The plan is a novel one for social and benevolent organizations, but the officers of the Elks' Lodge believe that it will enable the lodge to obtain the necessary money within the brotherhood. The lodge will spend $5,000 to be expended on the work of reconstructing the home, and the building committee, of which Past Exalted Ruler William Perlestein is chairman, has authorized the issue of $3,000 "baby bonds." Only members of the lodge will be invited to take these bonds. They range in denomination from $10 to $100. They are to be redeemed in series after three, four and five years.

Justice Griggs will sit in the case, as Justice Crutchfield will be one of the witnesses. Galbraith brought the Taylor woman into court on a charge of maintaining a disorderly house at 421 1/2 West Broad Street, and also on a charge of being disorderly there. While being taken to the Police Court in the patrol wagon the woman is alleged to have threatened to slap any policeman who testified against her, and, true to her word, when Galbraith began his testimony, she struck him in the face. COLORED GIRL CHARGED WITH MANY ROBBERIES

Lillie Hamilton Arrested and Large Amount of Goods Seized by Police.

CONFESSES SEVERAL THEFTS

Police Have Long Been Looking for Sneak-Thief, Who Made Hauls Each Saturday Night—Says She Found Door Open and Walked In.

The slickest and most daring female sneak-thief to be arrested here in years was apprehended late yesterday afternoon by Detective Sergeants Willy and Kellam, in the opinion of members of the police and detective force. At the station house she gave the name of Lillie Hamilton, colored, nineteen years old. She will be arraigned in the Police Court to-day on two charges of breaking into houses and robbing them, and it is said that as many as fifteen or twenty additional charges will be entered against her within the next few days.

The specific charges against the woman allege that she entered the house at 265 East Franklin Street last Saturday night. Once within the house she is alleged to have entered the apartments of Miss H. S. Houston and that of Miss H. S. Nolin, stealing a watch from Miss Houston and a hand-some dress, as well as other clothing. They were kept in Headquarters and rushed to the house as soon as reports were filed, arriving sometimes only a few minutes after the robbery had been committed, but never were they able to catch the thief.

In no case was the thief seen by persons within the house. Several times the detectives succeeded in locating persons who had seen a woman leave the house which had been robbed. In every case these persons reported that it was a light colored negro woman, small of stature and carrying a Stetson wide-brimmed hat. They supposed it was the same woman leaving the house with clothing. All of the robberies were committed between 8 and 9 o'clock Saturday evening.

The detectives searched for the woman until last yesterday afternoon they obtained the clue which led to her arrest. They discovered that the Hamilton woman lived at 911 North Station, where she was arrested. Only to find that she was at 4 East Charlie Street. A search of that place brought her to light. She was arrested on suspicion and sent to the Second Station, where the detectives went back to her home and searched it.

There they found a mass of handsome clothes, a great collection of handbags, several articles of jewelry and, in the finest assortment of the stolen keys yet captured from an alleged thief. The jewelry furnishes some of the best evidence against the woman, although it is said the owners will be able to identify all of the suits, sport coats, sweaters and other articles of dress which the woman had in the house. One of the pieces of jewelry consisted of a handsome rosary while other articles were gold powder boxes and similar trinkets.

In the house the officers found nearly fifty pillow slips, said to have been taken from the beds in the houses she robbed. The woman used the same methods in every robbery. There were but few instances in which she stole jewelry or money, several robberies having been reported where jewelry had been taken from the closets, and she did not stop until she had rifled the entire wardrobe of an apartment.

That she was very daring in committing the robberies is well known in one case she is known to have climbed three flights of back stairs to reach the apartment she robbed.

FOUND UNLOCKED AND WALKED IN

She admitted to the detectives that she found the front door of the house at 265 East Franklin Street unlocked and walked in. She proceeded to the second floor and knocked at the doors of Miss Houston's and Miss Nolin's apartments. Receiving no response she entered and ransacked each apartment. In most cases the detectives found that the woman had had the clothes altered to fit her. They recovered several suits from a dressmaker, who was in the process of remodeling suits for her at the time of her arrest.

Among the houses said to have been robbed by the Hamilton woman were those at 205 East Franklin, 1 West Grace, 261 East Franklin, 297 East Clay, 267 East Cary, 401 East Main, 1012 East Marshall, 102 East Franklin and 1005 East Marshall Street. In the latter place she is alleged to have stolen practically the entire wardrobe of several actresses together with a number of dresser articles. Several of these costumes and the dresser articles were recovered last night.

The woman has been actively at work here since last Christmas. It is said, when she is alleged to have entered the house at 261 East Franklin Street and to have stolen a slate and a Christmas presents on display there. Lillie, bearing the mark of the Hotel Richmond, was found in her room by the detectives. The woman admitted that she, her mother and sister had been washing, and it is believed they gained first access into the houses she robbed later by this means.
